CHRIS J. NAUDI

Chris is a Fellow of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of England and Wales (ICAEW), having qualified as a Chartered Accountant in 1989. He is also a fellow of the Malta Institute of Accountants (MIA) and a member of the Malta Institute of Taxation (MIT).

Chris retired from EY Malta as a Partner in June 2024 after 24 years of heading the tax practice there. Throughout his career, which includes a further 15 years with another Big Four firm, both in the UK, the Channel Islands, and Malta, he has sat on many committees, including the Education Committee of the MIA, where he was also an examiner for several years. He has been on the Council of the Institute of Financial Services Practitioners (IFSP) for over 20 years and is a past President of the Institute and a former Governor of FinanceMalta. Chris has also sat on the Taxation Committee of the IFSP for many years. He also sits on the tax working group of the Malta Chamber of Commerce and Enterprise.

Chris has been the contact member for the ICAEW in Malta for the past ten years.

His main hobbies are reading up on history and trekking.
