ETIENNE BORG CARDONA

Dr. Etienne Borg Cardona is a certified public accountant (FCCA) by profession and holds a master's in financial services from the University of Malta and a Ph.D. in leadership and management from Cranfield University, UK.

Following a thirty-year career in leadership positions in the private sector, in 2017 he set up Capital Advisory, an independent consulting firm advising on corporate finance, financial management and corporate governance.

He currently sits as an independent non-executive director on the boards of listed, regulated and private local and international companies in various industry sectors.

He is a Fellow of the Chartered Association of Certified Accountants and of the Malta Institute of Accountants, where he was elected to council between 2012 and 2021. He is currently a council member of the Institute of Financial Services Practitioners (IFSP), Malta, where he chairs the Directors' and Corporate Service Providers subcommittee, and a member of the Institute of Directors UK.

He has lectured financial management in the department of accountancy within the Faculty of Economics, Management and Accountancy, and on the history of finance, commerce, and money in modern economies at the University of Malta Centre for Liberal Arts and Sciences at the University of Malta.
