

ABOUT

MARCO BODELLINI

Marco Bodellini is a Professor of Banking and Financial Regulation at the University of Bergamo, a Visiting Professor at Fordham University - New York, University of Westminster - London, Université de la Côte d'Azur - Nice, and China University of Political Science and Law - Beijing, as well as the vice president of the South Korean Digital Finance Law Forum - Seoul.

He has published a significant number of books and articles in peer-reviewed American, British and European journals on several matters concerning banking regulation, bank crisis management, corporate governance of financial institutions, central banking, investment funds and asset management law, sustainable finance and fintech.

Marco is an Italian qualified lawyer and an of counsel at PWC Legal in Milan. He provides legal and regulatory consultancy to financial intermediaries and international institutions such as the World Bank, International Monetary Fund, European Bank for Reconstruction and Development and International Finance Corporation.

Marco is also a member of the expert group advising the European Parliament on bank resolution and a member of the advisory panel of the International Association of Deposit Insurers.

