MARIA LUCIA PASSADOR

Maria Lucia Passador, formerly Assistant Professor of Corporate Law and Financial Markets Regulation, holds a Master of Laws (LL.M.) from Harvard Law School, a Ph.D. in Commercial Law from Bocconi University, and a Master's Degree in Law (cum laude) from the same institution.

Her academic research focuses on corporate law and capital markets regulation, with particular emphasis on corporate governance and corporate finance. From a comparative perspective, she has examined topics such as directors' independence, the evolution and function of corporate governance codes, and the impact of emerging technologies on the conceptual framework and institutional structures of commercial law and financial markets regulation.
